

Fall Fallout 2008 MOVED to Skydive Chicago - Ottawa, IL September 26-28

I went and checked out the place today and it is very cool, way more than just a place to skydive - you really have to see it. Keep in mind at this location even though it is on the Fox River, it is too shallow for wakeboard boats and there is nowhere to launch. Feel free to bring your boat and put in a public launch in Ottawa, the Illinois River is back down to almost normal; it is the damage to The Busted Prop bar and campground that has forced us to make our change in plans.

Daily Campground Rates - Check in is at the main building office on the left, campground is to the right of the pond on a bluff overlooking the Fox River. If you show up Friday, the main office closes at 5:00 you will have to check in Saturday morning.

Tent $30

Cabin - First come first serve $45

Elec. Only Slot $25

Full Hookup Slot $35

If you need any assistance ask for Rook or Russ – tell them you are with Midwest Militia, or call Tim @ 815-405-5362

We are planning on a canoe trip at 1:00 PM Saturday - call the number below if you want to reserve a canoe; they take you about 8 miles up the fox and then you canoe downstream at your own pace. River Adventures is open seven days a week (weather permitting) from April to November. Please call for reservations, (815) 481-2142.

Fiddies are permitted, it's just asked that they are shut down at a decent hour and be respectful if there are other people around - there are trails and paths that we can ride along the river.
